

My name is Sadrakh Andreas and my major is International Business Management from Binus University of Alam Sutera, Indonesia. Oi-Dakk Indonesia is in F&B business that focus on the Korean street food business concept. Oi-Dakk Indonesia is the first in Indonesia with Korean food mix with the another Hype Trends of recipe from all around the world so it can sustain for the future.

BEEHIVE is the good institution for helping our team and students about developing, supporting, partnership, and give us a new mindset about the real business is. So many information that I got so I can set up a new strategy and planning for my business. For the future, I hope BEEHIVE get better and better for the business startup in the world.